Someone stole her life away . . .

Honor student Emily Heart had it all: a loving family, fabulous friends, and a bright future. But that was her old life, back before she was abducted and genetically altered against her will.

Now she's lost everything and living on the street, struggling to control her new abilities and stay alive. But surviving in the shadows won't be easy, not when a ruthless gang wants to kill her, a determined reporter wants to expose her, and relentless cops want to arrest her.

However, her problems don't end there. Any uncontrolled burst of emotion can send Emily jumping forward in time, arriving naked and afraid.

Despite being hunted around every corner, Emily vows to find those who did this to her and make them pay for what they've done. Emily doesn't quite know what she is, or what she's capable of, but she knows what she can't afford to do - make any mistakes.

Book Rating PG-13 for language, violence, and sexual situations.
