My Brother's Keeper (Fink's Book 1) Neale Byrnes, Kyle Fink
The Second Part of the Epic Western "Fink's" - My Brother's Keeper

See Where It All Began...

An epic Western tale about the Fink Brothers; three men the West never wanted to remember. Three men hell-bent on surviving the only way they know how - their father's twisted teachings. The story unfolds over 80 years as the brothers spread chaos and fear across the newly developing American landscape of the early 1800's while they constantly evade Marshal Rufus Utter, a noble lawman that ruins his life in the pursuit of his own personal justice – the capture of the Brothers. The Fink's are the only men to continually elude the Marshal, tarnishing his otherwise impeccable record as the West's most infamous lawman. Each time he encounters the brothers he loses a piece of himself, not only his physical appearance but a piece of his emotional state, causing him to continually push the boundaries of his moral actions.

This is the second issue of an ongoing series.
