As a small child Dorothea was thrust into a world of mystery and intrigue when she witnessed the brutal murder of her parents. Expelled from the hoity-toity Habersham Academy for Young Ladies because of her impetuosity, she learns the truth---that her parents were intelligence operatives in the service of the Queen. Now aided by her guardian, Lord Damien Easterbrook, she joins the Royal Secret Service to help foil an attempt on the life of the Prince of Wales, as well as to seek the identity of her parents' killer. In order to accomplish this, Dorothea must use every weapon at her disposal---her charm, her wit, and even her delectable body!
