Two Roads Diverged (Volume 1) Jonee Fowler

"One isn't always in the position to make the right decision." All Dominique wanted was for the last three weeks of school to be over and to focus on the band's chance at making it big this summer. However, fate had other plans. Those family secrets she had learned not to involve herself in have finally decided to unfold, forcing Dominique to take on a life she never wanted, the life of a hunter. Not only does she have to deal with a hot-tempered demon that wishes to beat the living hell out of her every time she's in the room with him, but little does she know, the biggest secret of all has yet to reveal itself as she walks blindly down her new path.
