Imagine living in a world where everything you do is controlled.

Book 1 in the Dystopia Trilogy

In the distant future the United States has been split into two regions separated by a barren wasteland; this is the country of Dystopia. Here the individual is discouraged, freedom is an illusion, food is rationed, and everything you do is tracked by a chip implanted in your arm. This is Dana Ginary's world.

At age seventeen, people receive their career assignments chosen for them by a government body. Forced to work at the Waste Management Plant because she was declared too individualistic, Dana finds herself surrounded by death and brutality. Knowing her days are numbered, she looks for a way to leave the plant before she, too, becomes one of its casualties.

It is then she meets a man named George and soon finds herself caught up in a cat and mouse game between the resistance and the Dystopian government. Dana finds herself faced with an agonizing choice of whom she will betray and whom she will save: her friend George, her parents, or herself.

The eyes are always watching.

What other Amazon customers are saying about this dystopian fiction, young adult novel:

"I admired the author on her ability to craft out a novel so real as if it is happening right now. Well done!" -- Zhu Hsia

"An excellent start to this series and I must admit that I read the last two first! I had to read the first one to see what action I had missed previously." --A Navy Vet...VT town TOP 500 REVIEWER

"Well developed characters, good pacing and plot. I enjoyed it enough that I am going to read the second novel in the trilogy..." --Albert Bowes

"The story is a mind engrosser and makes you read till the last page non-stop. It is highly recommended for the young adults and even adults as it makes a good read for day. As the length is not very long it might keep you a bit jump in the most exciting way." --Sukriti Goyal
