When God called me to be a voice for Him and told me what He was going to put my wife and me through, the furnace and the valley, I would have told God that He was looking for the other Joe down the street and not me. No way, God, I cannot go through that. I am glad God did not tell me what I was going to experience because that is where faith comes alive. These letters will take you through the furnace and through the valleys with us and then you will reach the top of the mountain realizing God's love and grace. I disliked the furnace and valley but as I look back I had so many impurities that had to be burned off and out of me in order to do God's will. Praise God for what we have been through. It hurt but it was absolutely necessary to strengthen our faith allowing His will to fulfill itself in order for me to write these books and produce my four or five teaching CD's. For you women I have a special free book on my website at: <http://www.worldgospelschool.com> God bless you. See you in Heaven.
