High Stakes Jennie Hansen

Luke Calloway was left for dead. Now he's on a trail of vengeance as he seeks out the men who killed his parents. He soon discovers that the person responsible is a prominent citizen—a corrupt man who wields his power to brand the young man a criminal. With revenge as his constant companion, Luke quickly finds himself playing the part of an outlaw. Maddie Brannigan is all her father has left—but the broken down gambler is still willing to offer his daughter as his stake in a game of chance.

Deciding to take her own chances, Maddie runs away—only to fall in love with a “wanted” man. Now both Luke and Maddie must overcome their troubled pasts if they are going to build a future together. However, history has a way of repeating itself, and bounty hunters are still looking for Luke. Can he really become a changed man? In this magnificent tale, best-selling author Jennie Hansen once again proves that love has a way of changing hearts and lives
