When 15 year old Jonathan Peters falls in love for the first time, it is as unwelcome as it is unexpected because he falls in love with another boy. As his love deepens, his internal struggle with being homosexual spills into the open, impacting on his relationships with family, friends and teachers, who must all adjust their ambitions for him and the way they relate to him. Aimed at readers 15+, this book describes what it is to be gay, at school and in love, the confusion, despair and sheer joy of teenage romance. If you have ever wondered, read this and believe!
