PRACTICAL WEDDING SERVICES & GUIDELINES FOR THE MINISTER: Various wedding services for the minister plus USEFUL information Jimmy Davis

This book contains some of the vital information the clergy performing the wedding would want to know before the actual first meeting with the bride and groom, before the wedding, as well as some key and useful information for the wedding director. You may print and use this information the actual wedding services have used and collected over a 40 plus year span, as you see the need. All names have been changed to protect the innocent!

This writing in no way would be all the information a pastor would need to officiate weddings, and should be used for starter information only.
