The Snappers: Amazing facts about the Crocodile, the Alligator, the Caiman and the Gharial (Head to Head Book 2) Enid Joyce

The second biggest species of all the crocodylians is the little-known Gharial found in Southern Asia. This book is full of more facts about these great creatures and loads of pictures for you to enjoy.

The book starts by comparing all the animals (crocodile, alligator, caiman and gharial) and explains the differences and similarities that they have to each other. Each animal is then discussed individually in detail in the chapters that follow.

It's been fun writing the book and I hope you have as much fun reading it.
