Children's Books: How the Cow Jumped Over the Moon: (Fun Rhyming Picture Book/Bedtime Story with Farm Animals about Trying Something New and Being Adventurous for Beginner Readers, Ages 2-8) Sally Huss

In this book you'll meet a very stubborn, bored, and uninspired cow. She is steadfast in her determination not to try something new. She is amusingly invited to join one animal after the next in an adventure with them, but sticks to her old habits. It is not until a chicken encourages her to jump over the moon that she decides to change her ways. All in rhyme, and all with a smile, this story is one to delight every child, and subtly spark the spirit of adventure within them. It emphasizes the importance of trying something new -- being adventurous and in the most whimsical way. -- Charmingly illustrated in bright and happy colors.
