Clara's Return Suzanna J Linton

Clara, lost and disillusioned from a hard-fought war, hopes to discover some answers about her lineage and abilities in the quiet village of Bluebell, where she once lived before being sold into slavery. However, as she and the Captain of the Royal Guard make their journey, a new menace to the kingdom arises in the form of a traitor.

This threat has been patiently brewing since the fall of the sorcerer-king Marduk and careful plans are now coming to fruition. Emmerich's struggles with his new role as king and his ever-present nightmares leave him feeling inadequate to the task. What he needs most is Clara.

But how can she help from so far away? And how can she help if she does not even know who she is?
