Judges: Ordinary People, Extraordinary God (Back to the Bible Study Guides) Woodrow Kroll

The book of Judges is highly relevant for Christians today. No other book shows so clearly how God uses ordinary people—in spite of their faults—to do mighty deeds for his glory.

Rather than a verse-by-verse or chapter-by-chapter review, this study will take you life-by-life through the individual judges, both in the book of Judges and 1 Samuel. Each of the study's sixteen lessons includes a Scripture passage (in the ESV®), a devotional, thought-provoking questions, and a challenge to go deeper.

Through Judges you'll learn how God works in every ordinary person's life, utilizing both strengths and weaknesses to carry out his will. And ultimately you can discover the specific way God desires to use you for his extraordinary purposes.
