A STANDALONE BAD BOY SPORTS ROMANCE!

Time was a commodity that was very limited...

Samantha Maxwell

Samantha Maxwell had thought that it was a curse by her professor to take on the assignment of interviewing a cocksure football player. She wants to be the kind of journalists that gets to the meat of the matter and doesn't allow personal emotions to cloud her judgment.

Samantha has met a man and at first, she thinks that she can rebuff his advances. She questions his character and their heated debate turned into something more than just raised voices. Their passion overrode their good judgment and before long she was falling headlong into something that not even she could control. She wants more of the same, but somebody has taken matters into their own hands to deal with the man that has no scruples.

Judson Nielsen

Johnson Nielsen has always been god's gift to women, but he has just recently learned that someone is fighting those urges to be with him. He knows that he's the catch of the day and that people are vying for his signature on the dotted line. He wants only what is best for him, but sometimes he sees only the dollar signs and not the reality of the situation.

Judson has never met a woman like Samantha, but he still feels that the challenge is worth fighting his way underneath her prim and proper exterior. He wants what all the boys want, but his bad boy attitude might just seal the deal.

Leaving the comfort of his little bubble is the only way that he will find out the truth of how his actions have a way of following him into the future.

WARNING: This ebook contains mature themes and language. Intended for 18+ readers only.
