They can't forget how perfect they were together. But a second chance at love comes with a price.

Promising young architect Jordan Callahan has caught another boyfriend cheating. The last thing he needs is to meet up with old flame Rick at their five-year high school reunion. Tall, dark, and athletic, Rick may be self-absorbed, but he's been Jordan's dream guy since sophomore year. He's also closeted, and if Jordan gives in to the temptation of Rick's kisses, his lost love could become one more man who breaks his heart.

Rick Ferguson is a consummate salesman who's spent his life living up to other people's expectations. The former homecoming king has found success in his career, but the other half of the equation—settling down with a nice girl—isn't in his future. He's tried dating women, but he wants Jordan—his best friend and the only person who understands him. That means coming out, disappointing his family and inviting ridicule from friends. His small-town golden boy reputation will be shattered if he follows his heart to the only love he's ever wanted.

This steamy gay romance novella is intended for a mature audience. It contains flirtation, secret trysts, fresh hotel sheets, self-delusion, angst, and long, passionate kisses.
