Windows (Italian Knights) (Volume 1) Billy London

Gina Robinson has kept to the same mantra for the last decade Don't touch the hot Italian. Okay, hug, but don't kiss. Kiss but no tongues. With her father recently departed and sympathy being rampant from said hot Italian, the mantra is becoming less and less easy to live by. Gina wants to stay independent and out of unrequited love. Nicholas DaCanaveze is truly making neither simple. Nick has distracted himself from what his heart wants for so long, mostly with a long line of willing women. And it's not working. He still loves Gina. Deeply, irrevocably, forever. She still doesn't know everything about him. He's kept secrets from her. Necessary secrets. For her good. For his good. As painful as it is to just be her friend, he can't bear to think what his life would be like without her altogether. And she would be out of his life if she knew. If only she knew...
