Falling Away: Why Christians Lose Their Faith and What Can Be Done About it Brian Simmons

It's sad but nearly every Christian family has them beloved members and friends who lose their Christian faith. Recently, a survey revealed that Today, according to a recent study, 16.1 percent of adults are unaffiliated in any type of religion. Among young adults, the number is higher -- 25 percent are unaffiliated. These statistics are alarming. But there's an answer found in the new edition of Falling Away. In Falling Away, Sociologist and Minister Brian Simmons offers answers as to why people are leaving their faith and what can be done about it.
