He wanted a little R&R. He got a baby...

Jake Carter worked hard to leave his small town behind him and find success as a professional hockey player. Returning to Indiana for his sister's wedding, reminded him of all the reasons he could never go back. And the one reason he had to.

A lot had changed since Jake had left town, and Abigail had too. Having him back put everything she'd done to rebuild her life in question. And now the only thing she really needed to know was whether or not he was the man she remembered, and whether or not he would be able to handle the secrets he was coming home to.

This is a full-length romance with an HEA, no cheating, and no cliffhanger!
