A Father's Heart Mike W. Henry

Dads have a unique challenge today. We are given the task of teaching our children about boundaries, about true love, about faith in God, and about how to "break the rules" but still "color inside the lines." There's no mistake: We are not Mom. We have our own place, and we instill in our children a perspective that is unlike any other. A Father's Heart is a journey into the mind of a father - that twisted place that is sometimes very goofy and sometimes very, very serious. But it is always uniquely Dad.
