Antoinette returns from New York City after a three and a half year whirlwind adventure. Having left London in 2012, seeking a life that reflected who she really was rather than who the world said she was meant to be, she finds herself back where she started with more gems than her heart and mind can cope with or process. As she begins to free herself from the busyness and painful memories of the concrete jungle, she enters a period of rest and transition, finding safety in a job at Gap. In the fifth book of The Essence Series, Antoinette shares how simplicity was the key to recovering from her experience in New York City and how working as a sales assistant at the Gap Oxford Street Flagship store in London provided the perfect environment to release the woman within. Her story inspires others to be that person they've always wanted to be; that someone they love, admire and trust to lead them in to their destiny.
