Saving Mother's Day: A Heartwarming Story for 8-10 year olds, And Their Parents, About Preserving Traditions for Those We Love Alma J Wilson

Kyle has always loved Mother's Day weekend. It begins on Saturday when he and Dad go shopping for the perfect card, the most beautiful flowers, and yummy treats for a special breakfast in bed. They do this because Mom is very special.

But this year, everything is different. Kyle wakes up early when he hears Dad yelling. Then he and Mom pack up all their stuff and go to Grandma's house.

What has gone wrong? And how can Kyle fix it?

Saving Mother's Day is, first and foremost, a story about hope. In spite of difficult circumstances, Kyle is able to preserve special family traditions, and show Mom how much he loves her. It's sure to become one of your family's favorite books, filled with enough love to last a lifetime.
