Say Something Salice Rodgers

Working at Frank's and going home, is just another day in the life of Joslynn. When the gorgeous Marshall starts a routine of visiting the restaurant and sitting in the same spot everyday, it throws her life into a tailspin. He seems to be searching for someone or something, and Joslynn's co-workers, Frank and Tank, are determined to make her believe he's nothing but trouble. With Marshall comes a string of events that put Joslynn in danger, and memories of things long buried come to the surface. People she thought she could trust soon become the enemy. Who is Marshall? And why does he seem so familiar to Joslynn?
