eBay Tools & Services Guide 2011 Chris Dawson and Sue Bailey TameBay is owned and written by Chris Dawson and Sue Bailey, two British ecommerce professionals. Between us we have traded on eBay for over two decades. Chris and Sue met on eBay UK's PowerSeller forum longer ago than either of them like to admit. By October 2006, both had become frustrated with eBay's inability to keep their users informed of new features on the site, with the impenetrability of eBay's help pages, and with the lack of a UK- and Europe-centered news site for all things ecommercial. In a moment between classes at eBay University, Dan Wilson said what were to be fatal words: "you need a blog". TameBay is the result. Since the launch in 2006 TameBay has grown to be one of the definitive sources for eBay news, tips, tricks and trading advice. Over 50,000 readers visit the site each month making TameBay one of the best places on the Internet to keep up to date with everything eBay and to network with fellow eBay professional sellers. We're thrilled to publish the first edition of the TameBay eBay Tools and Services Guide 2011 which brings together all of the tools we've used to run our businesses over the years.
