Recently unemployed, with her family in debt and bills piling up, curvy Nora desperately needs money. As a final effort, she decides to become a mail-order bride to an unknown man. She isn't looking for love, but for the five thousand dollars that the mail-order agency pays her, she's willing to do her best to tolerate some jerk for the two-week duration of her contract. When Nora meets her groom though, she realizes that there might be something better to gain from the deal than money too...

As a strong believer in fate, when bear shifter Logan gets smacked in the face by a brochure from the American Mail-Order Bride Service, he takes it as a sign, and decides to order a mail-order bride. When curvy Nora arrives at his cabin in Montana, Logan immediately recognizes her as his mate. However, Nora is human, and Logan knows that humans do not always easily accept shifters. How can he tell her about his true nature and that he wants to spend the rest of his life with her? Will Nora accept him?
