Amy Wilde is a born again good girl with a wild side. After spending the last six years getting her life back on track, going to nursing school and repairing the broken trust between her and her family, Amy puts all her hard work in jeopardy when she foolishly, and secretly, falls for the same ex that nearly destroyed her life once before. But now her ex is dead, her secrets out and a crazy stalker is determined to make her pay for a crime she didn't commit. That's where Max comes in.

Burnt out and ready for a break, the last thing P.I Max Cranston wants to do is take on another case. Until he meets his new assignment, that is. Despite her current troubles, Amy is bright, beautiful, sexy and completely charming. The more time he spends with this spitfire bombshell, the more tempted he is to do more than protect her.

Kidnappings, shootings, life-altering moments, hot investigators and naughty nurses, all work together to make this crossover Spring Towers/Cranston Series book one to remember.
