The Superstar's Lost Love

Danika has only been with one man, and now he's a successful NFL football player who knows nothing about the secret she's been keeping from him. Happy to never have to tell him, but stuck in the small town they grew up in, Danika is content with life. Until her high school best friend (and sister to the man she once loved) tells her that they are coming back home- for a wedding. Danika must face Ally and the successful, super rich, man that she's fallen in love with as she has hardly enough money to take care of the bills and keep food on the table.

When Seth sees her he knows that whatever feelings he had for her aren't gone. He's sick of one night stands. He wants a woman who will love him, but when he finds out Danika's secret he has so many emotions going through him that he isn't sure what to do.
