Beginner's success in Public Speaking Daniel Alexander

Beginner's success in Public Speaking is a practical guide for beginners who need to or would like to do public speaking. All the small bits and bobs I've learned that got me from 'not wanting to do public speaking' to 'being able to give a half decent public address.' This is a very short and most importantly practical guide. In the spirit of the book, I'm not going to insult your intelligence by writing paragraphs and paragraphs of 'marketing talk' to get you to buy this book. It's as simple as, are you too afraid to get onto a stage and speak? Then this book has 25 practical things you can do to help you and it's cheap. I'm mean really, you can afford it!
