Sasha...

As life continues on, some things must come to an end; that is the unspoken truth we fear to acknowledge. We've journeyed over the course of a moment in time together as my life has taken on new meaning. But happily ever after never did come easy. Come walk with me as the seasons change and I learn to find balance in the presence of life altering tragedy.

Etienne...

Nannau, you devilish Goddess in the heavens, this is really happening, isn't it? My past fears will be made present as I am forced to face that in which I run from. Will the world stop? Will the other half of my soul break off and turn from me only to leave me dust in wind in her wake?

Aiden...

I never asked for this, I never wanted this. I have my life planned out to a T, and nowhere on that map were there detours like this. My flesh is not my own, my DNA is sequenced to become something else entirely, something that I fear, something that I don't understand. And at the heart of it, my once spoken truths are proving to be lies as I meet my future head on.

Ethan...

My brother may be short sighted on this new development but I embrace it, I feel as if my destiny is awakening. Mom didn't do us a favor holding out on us for so long, I wish she would have been honest from the beginning. Oh well, let's do this.
