God has always had a messenger. One after another has proclaimed God's tidings to His creation. Noah. Moses. Daniel. Peter. Paul. John. What about our time here near the end of the world's history? Has God provided a prophetic forerunner for us?

If the biblical record is correct, God does have an envoy for us today. God indeed provides for you and all of His people.

It shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. (Acts 2:17)

I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit. (Joel 2:28–29)

How do we know if someone who claims to have prophetic abilities is truthful? Isaiah 8:20 speaks to this:

To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

Everything that a true prophet shares with the children of God will point them directly to God's Word. Marvelously, God established His representative for our day. Author and pastor, Steve Wohlberg points to this important Bible truth.

In these brief 32 pages, you'll find a Bible verse on several different topics. Loving character of Jesus Christ. Death of Jesus Christ for our sins. Salvation. Return of Jesus Christ. Day of judgment. The Ten Commandments.

The quotations that support God's Word all come from the writings of Ellen G. White. She was named among "The 100 Most Significant Americans of All Time" in the Spring 2015 issue of Smithsonian.

Examine for yourself the truth of her prophecy.
