Apple's iPhone and the thousands of apps available for it in the iTunes App Store have given rise to a new art form – works created on the iPhone computing platform, now joined by more created on the iPad. As more and more iPhone/iPad Art makes its way into the mainstream media, people want to know: what apps are artists using to create it, and how?

iPhone Art, iPad Art answers those questions in a visual, elegant, personal, and totally informative way. Step-by-step descriptions illustrate how each app is used and make this book a must-have resource for artists, photographers, teachers and students. Sample artwork was selected from artists all over the world, and ranges across photography, collage, painting, app art, video art, background apps, and display. Special attention is given to the highly active photo-sharing website, Flickr, and its groups containing over 200 incredibly talented iPhone artists.
