Lisa Fuller is a big, beautiful woman who leads a pretty ordinary existence until she literally runs into a werebear on the jogging trail and is brought to the attention of a world she doesn't even know exists. One whiff of Lisa and Raven Kindersley knows he has finally met his mate. Before he can help himself, he puts his mark on her, branding her his own for all time. But being around Lisa is hell on his control and because he knows that for a werebear, losing control is very dangerous, Raven vows to stay away from her at all costs.

Unfortunately Raven's mark attracts the wrong kind of attention and soon he must step out of the shadows and claim her for himself or stand by and watch her die.
