Why wait until the next destructive storm is predicted or on its way to your locale? To have victory over potentially bad weather, and keep from reaping its devastating effects on your property and family, there are steps that every “believer” or person of faith needs to know and to take in advance. In “Guide,” Saidel will teach readers how to use what God has already given them to command the weather. Walk in your authority and protect your life and family from “intruders.” See the protection of God on a whole new level.
