Almost Doesn't Count Chemistry

Chelle Tate is a successful production designer who seems to have it all. She owns her own home and drives a silver and black Lexus. She met Lance Higgins in church, so he had to be right. They started dating right away, and they had the perfect relationship, or so everyone thought. There was a dark secret Chelle was hiding from family and friends. Lance was abusing her physically, mentally, and sexually, and she was afraid to tell anyone because she had a secret of her own. She came up with a plan, a self-defense murder plot, with Lance's friend, whom she had fallen in love with, and her secret would be dead and buried six feet under, or would it...
