Mi Vida a la Carrera: Desde Manhattan (Spanish Edition) Elsa Gladys Cifuentes Aranzazu

Mi vida a la carrera es un documento profundamente humano que con soltura, naturalidad y buen estilo, envuelve al lector pues le hace participar de un viaje a través de la historia personal y profesional de Elsa Gladys Cifuentes, entremezcladas con su visión de la historia política y económica de nuestro país, de los procesos migratorios y de la vida dedicada al servicio público. Mi Vida a la Carrera recorre los paisajes Colombianos al tiempo que relata la historia de una niña que apoyada por la Alianza para el Progreso del Presidente John F. Kennedy se convierte en mujer, se empodera e inspira hasta convertirse en la voz de su comunidad tanto en Colombia como en el exterior. A medida que avanza la lectura se van entretejiendo las experiencias administrativas de la gestión pública con las demandas y sacrificios de las gestas electorales, con sus ideas sobre la sociedad, el desarrollo, la pobreza, la ecología, la condición de la mujer, la educación, el arte, la diplomacia, sobre lo que va siendo la realidad de su ciudad, de su comarca, de su país, del mundo en desarrollo. Y a partir de su experiencia, de sus vivencias, de sus luchas, va creciendo en edad, dignidad, servicio y experiencia. Mi vida a la carrera es el testimonio de una vida, que más que a la carrera, ha sido intensa, vivida con fe, con alegría y entusiasmo. Tal como relata la autora: "escogí la vida pública y me expuse a la representación de un papel hasta que me convertí en lo representado. Me hice servidora porque ya servía, me hice política porque ya pertenecía al debate de las ideas, me hice candidata cuando ya había recogido el testigo de las comunidades, me hice creyente cuando me llené de fe en un proyecto de vida en común y en una búsqueda espiritual". Mi vida a la carrera es lectura obligada para todos aquellos que como Elsa Gladys Cifuentes tienen vocación de servicio, interés en lo público, y sobretodo para aquellos ávidos de una lectura sincera, profunda e inspiradora.
