On a quiet street in the suburbs of Chicago sits an ordinary ranch home built in the sixties. Inside, a young couple rests comfortably until there is a scratch at the door...

Something inhabits the Madisons' home. It feeds off of memories and produces hallucinations that will isolate and confuse the ghost hunters until it can get its hands on them. The physicality of the presence sends pregnant Mia to the bench, in this case, the command center. The other PEEPs no sooner step inside the door, before they are greeted with their worst nightmares. Even Murphy is plagued by demons of his past.

With Mia sidelined, and Murphy unable to function, PEEPs accept the help of Father Santos's group. They too have never dealt with an entity as powerful as this. But don't worry, Gerald Shem knows a guy who knows a guy...

Open the book if you dare. Stare boldly into the eyes of a mentalist so strong, he reaches out from the grave to enslave you. Beware, he is in your mind already!

Mind Fray is the twelfth novel of the "Haunted Series." It follows "Renovation."
