They know everything. They know your name, your address, who your friends are. They know where you go, where you've been, what you say. Not that they care for these things, they only care if you know something you shouldn't. That's how the life of a Legend began for Kayra. With a little curiosity and bravery she falls into a path of struggle, the path of a Legend. As Kayra goes on her journey, she encounters life changing people and experiences.
