Issac is an empath, a human that can sway other people's emotions who doesn't often have luck with women because he refuses to use his power for evil. After going on another failed date, he finds himself in his favorite spot in town; the library. There, he sees the most beautiful woman he's ever seen, not just on the outside, but inside as well.

Following her, she leads him to a magic shop, where she confronts him. As they talk, they realize that they share much in common, and romance blooms. Together they decide the state's mystery of the disappearing girls, revealing a more sinister foe than the police can possibly imagine.
