For Bryce and Maycee it was the night that would change their lives forever. Maycee had never wanted to go to prom because of the night her older sister Rylynn attended her own prom. It was a night they'd all like to forget. Maycee was only seven that year, but the memory was a strong one. On Rylynn's prom night, there was a terrible accident that changed their lives forever. Now Rylynn is institutionalized, Ryker and Rylynn's parents are at odds, and Maycee is stuck in the middle between the family feud and her hope that she will get her sister back one day. This is already too much for a teenage girl to cope with each day, add in the problem of forbidden love and it's a story that rivals a Shakespearean play
