The Effectiveness of Drama as a Medium of Transformation Samuel Oyewole Adey

Based on the popularity of drama as a communication method in the current Western culture, the church should consider taking drama ministry more seriously as an effective means of mission evangelism and to counter the incursion of unbiblical worldviews that can be produced by secular media sources. Alternative forms of entertainment are needed for people who have become accustomed to watching drama and movies. If people are not fed with the bread of life, heavenly-inspired gospel drama/movies, they will feed on the bread of sorrow, secular entertainment that has nothing to offer their spirits.
