Demons Don't Die Without a Fight

After destroying the demon Lucien, Braden's son of Belle Dam's most powerful warlock, Jason Thorpe doesn't need the power of his witch eyes to see that everything in his life is turning against him: friends, family, and even his visions. When disturbing nightmares of Lucien's return haunt him, Braden discovers that the simmering feud between Belle Dam's two witch dynasties is fast approaching its explosive boiling point.

While struggling to come to terms with his attraction to Trey, Catherine Lansing's son who should be his mortal enemy, Braden senses a diabolical plan has been set in motion. Young women are disappearing from town, and as he investigates, Braden is forced to explore the dangerous unknown power within himself. But when the truth about his family is revealed, Braden must pay a terrible price.
