Driving in Neutral Sandra Antonelli

A new, quick-witted, quip-heavy romance for grown-ups from Sandra Antonelli about facing your fears—because love is the greatest risk of all. Levelheaded Olivia Regen walks away from her car-racing career and the wreckage of a bad marriage to take on new work that's far removed from the twists of racetrack. Her new life is about control, calm and the good friends that she adores. But her first task on her very first day involves getting up close and too personal with her claustrophobic boss, alone in a broken elevator. Her unconventional solution for restoring his equilibrium shocks them both and leaves Olivia shaken. Determined to stick to her plan, Olivia drives headlong into work and planning her best friend's wedding, leaving no room for kissing, elevators, or workplace relationships. But Emerson is not one to be outmanoeuvred. Can he convince Olivia that her fear of falling in love again is just another kind of claustrophobia—one that is destined to leave them both lonely?
