Kalimat Noha Elmohands

This book is the first release of Noha Elmohands' personal spoken word poems. These poems explore issues of race, war, love, and history while maintaining a musical style that is a unique identifier of the author's work. The poems are written from a Progressive Muslim Black Egyptian Woman perspective and with social justice as an arching theme. This collection is personal and revolutionary. Hopefully, you will find yourself enraptured by their grace and power.
