"..I was hooked after the first chapter." — Alex Roy, Internet Club Publishing

Anyway, today's supposed to be a new day and a new start for me, so I shouldn't be such a weepy little brat. Besides, Mom makes awesome breakfasts; the strawberry tea she brews is a bit of an acquired taste, but I've gotten used to it since I was like, what, five?

After breakfast, Dad and I head back up to our respective rooms to get ready for the day – as my folks say, when starting out somewhere new, it pays to arrive on time, as it gives a good impression to the people around you.

With the shower done, I put on the school uniform, which looks oddly proportioned on my still-developing frame. After putting on my underwear, there's a set of short shorts (presumably to preserve modesty given that the skirt is a bit, well, small), a white blouse, aforementioned short skirt (in purple, too), and a vest over the blouse.

Whoa, the uniform also includes thigh-high stockings not quite reaching the skirt. Which weirdo came up with this idea?

Anyhow, the stockings meshed well with the outfit and the flats I bought for the school year, and after tying the school sweater blazer around my waist – to further preserve my modesty – I grab my school bag and step out of the room.

My father looked like a fish out of water the moment he saw me emerge from my room, taking a few moments to put his head back on properly before clicking his tongue and making his pronouncement.

"I don't know whether to shake the hand of whoever did that or strangle him, to be honest," he growled, before his expression softened. "But I guess it's all right since I know you can take care of yourself, dear."
