Popcorn Sutton is unquestionably one of the most iconic moonshiners. While most moonshiners live clandestine lives, Sutton reveled in the spotlight . His crass personality and brazen disregard for authority is what ultimately led to his demise. Facing an eighteen-month prison sentence for shining, Popcorn decided to end his life in 2009 rather than face the charges. In this collection of poems, Kurt K. Shinian captures the essence of this colorful personality. From his first batch to his run-ins with the law, Shinian brings to life one of Appalachia's own.
