Allison—a modest, driven political aspirant—is struggling with finding satisfaction with her desk job when what she really wants is to be in the political arena. When her boss asks her to attend a masquerade thrown by a local politician, whom Allison both loathes and admires, she balks at the requirement that all female guests, dress in revealing costumes. Secretly though, she is intrigued by the idea of playing exhibitionist for an evening. On the night of the party, she comes mask-to-mask with a man who will challenge her to push her every boundary, pushing her to explore the depths of her own hidden sexuality.
