The Jewish leaders demanded from Jesus a sign that He was the Christ—but instead, Jesus likened His ministry to the story of Jonah. This spiritually enriching book highlights the importance of this strange but remarkable story and gives clarity to both the story of Jonah and to the death and resurrection of Christ.

Is the story of Jonah a factual event or a fictional parable?

What did three days and three nights mean to the Jews and Jesus' crucifixion?

What did do the words "heart of the earth" mean?

What are the hidden spiritual connections between Jesus and Jonah?
