A sexy sports romance by Marian Grey of African American Club. Famous tennis coach Lorraine knows apps are the hot thing of the moment, so decides to create one of her own. But when it gets a flood of suspicious negative reviews, she turns to the best in the business to solve her problem: Philip; a sexy billionaire who part owns the company who made her app. Never normally one to deal with clients directly, he makes an exception with Lorraine due to her high profile image and the fact she's just his type. Soon the two grow very close, and what was once a business relationship turns very personal! But with forces at play aiming to ruin things for the couple, can both their relationship and Lorraine's app survive? Find out in this high-stakes, sexy sports romance by popular black author Marian Grey. Suitable for over 18s only due to sex scenes so hot, you'll be looking for your own billionaire to make a racket with.
