Ghislaine Hardier

This without doubt will be the book that every Jeep enthusiast, collector and mechanic has been waiting for. There are many books on the history of this legendary vehicle, but here – for the first time ever – the authors tell you in step-by-step detail exactly how to restore your Jeep.

From the crankshaft to the engine block, including the cylinders, the oil pump, the clutch and the gear box, key advice on restoration and the pitfalls to avoid are fully explained, with a set of over 150 photographs to support the information provided.

Expert restorer Ghislain Hardier has been the inspiration behind the restoration of literally hundreds of Jeeps. He has been the president of his local military history association since 1975. Fellow experts Arnel Joubert des Ouches has been a journalist with French TV channel T.F. 1 for the past eleven years, and Jean-Luc Couesme contributes to a number of specialist magazines. All have been restoring military vehicles for many years and share their experiences with you in this essential restoring and jeep enthusiast's manual.

REVIEWS

Armorama, 08/2008

“...very well illustrated...a lot of detail given in a logical order...very impressed.”
